

FIRST CALL FOR PAPERS

Idaho Archaeological Society

36th Annual Conference

Saturday October 24th, 2009

Dr. Loren Davis, Oregon State University

Keynote Speaker

8 a.m. - Registration & Continental Breakfast

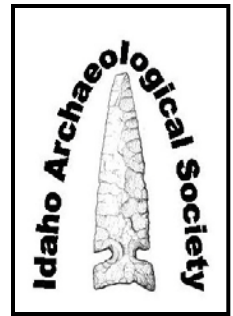

9 a.m. - Papers

Boise State University

Engineering & Technology Building

1375 University Drive

Boise

Conference Paper Submission Guidelines

- Submit up to 150-word abstract by October 3.
Submit abstract to: Pam Demo, 2674 S Swallowtail Ln, Boise ID, 83706; or pdemo@msn.com. Late abstracts may not be included on the conference agenda.
- Paper presentation limited to 15 minutes.

J. Perry Silver Student Paper Award

The IAS will award $200 and a one-year IAS membership for the best student presentation based on a research paper. Papers & abstracts due October 10. See JP Silver Award call for papers for details.

The Student Paper Award commemorates the contributions of Perry Silver, founding member and 35-year treasurer of the Idaho Archaeological Society.

Idaho Professional Archaeological Council [IPAC] Meeting

Friday October 23rd, 1-4 pm: Idaho History Ctr, 2205 Old Penitentiary Rd. See IPAC website for agenda details: <http://www.idarchaeology.com/events.html> Business, election of officers, current issues discussion. Scott Phillips, President

Annual Silent Auction Benefiting the IAS

Saturday October 24th. We all look forward to it! Bring items & bid on items donated by IAS members. Have your checkbook & cash because there are treasures to be had. Bid during the day and reap the rewards at the close of the conference.
Contact: Mary Anne Davis MaryAnne.Davis@ishs.idaho.gov or 334-3846.

The 2009 IAS Conference is sponsored by the Idaho Archaeological Society, Boise State University, and the Idaho State Historical Society. Events are free but IAS membership is encouraged.